local and regional The Performance Arts of Africa: A Reader:

The Performance Arts in Africa is the first anthology of key writings on African performance from many parts of the continent. As well as play texts off the cuff comedy routines and masquerades this exciting collection encompasses community based drama, tourist presentations, television soap operas, puppet theatre, dance, song and ceremonial ritualised performances. Themes discussed are theory, performers and performing voice, language. This anthology is a rich collection illustrating the variety of African performance traditions and the often very fine work that has been done on them.
