Even the dream of college sports and a personal commitment to his mother could not prevent Duane Freeman from falling victim to the lure of his neighborhood's vice and violence in Compton California. Betrayed by his childhood sweetheart and his best friend, he is arrested for attempted murder and ushered into the largest human warehousing system in the United States: the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation. Rather than fall victim to Rating 5 Stars, ed by Alice D for Readers Favorite Slapped by Injustice Point Blank is a highly readable and very well written. The dialogue is first rate, Duane's success in living his life fully after.
