Bye Mama I Love You:

1 of 3 review helpful FICTION By robert mcconnaha This book needs to be listed as FICTION and have basic grammatical editing The details of the author's past are not entirely accurate though I am not surprised with her mental health and controlled substance abuse history I am however appalled of her using real names while depicting these real people negatively and caution both her and the publisher of the potentia What kind of parents give away seven lonely scared innocent children This is the true story of a family torn apart by careless and neglectful parents the story of seven children left to fend for themselves abandoned by their parents and adopted out to other families It's a story of bitterness hatred and jealousy between family members who would go to any lengths to get what they want It's a story of innocence lost And for one of these abandoned children it
