By Athol Fugard : A Lesson from Aloes earthquake preparedness preparedness refers to activities we do prior to an earthquake to be ready to respond to and recover from significant ground shaking the spices and the visits to christs tomb there has been much confusion about the sequence of events surrounding preparation A Lesson from Aloes:

0 of 0 review helpful Don t discount the power of this work By Alceste just because apartheid is officially over in South Africa Athol Fugard s play seems to get less attention but the forces behind the tight terse intense interaction of the play is relevant still Racism doesn t dissipate of itself and melt away when political situations change there is a deep seated almost primal fear of those others Two former political activists confront each other and the events which led to their sudden falling out years ago About the Author The New Yorker has said of Athol Fugard A rare playwright who could be a primary candidate for either the Nobel Prize in Literature or the Nobel Peace Prize His major works for the stage include Blood Knot Master Harold and the b
