148 of 153 review helpful Good book By Ryan I feel I m not qualified to review this book I m just a regular guy not a literature professor but maybe my comments will be helpful to some This book is really good It s all about the characters Many times while I was reading I wondered how all of this was going to end It wasn t like a regular story where there s a pretty clear end goal like get the bad guy or solve Anna is beautiful and admired but empty ndash until a chance meeting throws her into emotional turmoil and a scandalous affair Contrasting with this tale of destructive love is the story of Levin an idealistic man striving to find meaning in life ndash and a self portrait of Tolstoy himself Theatre this engrossing is rare Time Out The aim is not to report the novel but to recreate it as a piece of theatre a dramatisation which is symbolically accurate as well as theatrically compelling Guardian
